JOHN LIND TELLS HIS STORY

Informs the President of Conditions and Holds Out for an Apology

Washington, April 15.—After conferring with a resident of Washington, Secretary Bryan and John Lind, and after a careful study, it was decided that before the Washington government goes further in looking up John Lind's case a demand for an apology for the recent arrest of Lind should be made. A further investigation would be made into the facts surrounding the incident.

Lind's story was that the entire thing was a mistake. The president of the United States must be given for the recent arrest of Lind and that the flag and stripes must be returned.

Lind also told the president and Secretary Bryan an interesting story of the military situation at Tampico. The military situation at Tampico was a very serious one and Lind had been in the city for several days.
